I, Anthony N. Coleman understand that I have the right to be represented by a lawyer at all stages of this case; before the trial, to evaluate a plea offer, at a trial, during proceedings to determine what sentence should be imposed if I am found guilty, and during any appeal. I understand that, if I am unable to pay for all or a part of the expense of legal representation from available present income and assets, a lawyer will be furnished for me free of charge. After reading and understanding all of the above, I hereby waive my right to a lawyer in this case.

I, Anthony N. Coleman understand that the above sentencing recommendation is not binding upon the Court and if the Court rejects the recommendation and imposes a sentence different from that recommended, I will not be permitted to withdraw my plea of guilty.

By pleading guilty, I will be giving up my rights to plead not guilty; to confront, cross-examine and compel the attendance of witnesses; to present evidence in my defense; to remain silent and refuse to be a witness against myself by asserting my privilege against self-incrimination – all with the assistance of counsel – and to be presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. I waive my right to trial, agree to enter my plea before and to be sentenced by a U.S. Magistrate Judge, and waive any right to appeal or otherwise challenge my conviction. The nature of the charge(s) and the possible penalties have been explained to me, and there is a factual basis for each charge to which I am pleading guilty. I understand that the Court may later modify the terms and conditions of any probation or supervised release ordered as part of my sentence. My guilty plea is not the result of force, threats, or promises other than any promises contained in this written agreement. I am not under the influence of alcohol or drug and am fully capable of understanding this agreement and enter it knowingly and voluntarily.
